Ron,

It is very hard for me to express my feelings in the correct words. I think you can understand. Ron, you are a very interesting and talented young man. You have many capabilities for a very successful life and I do hope your life is successful.

We have had our ups and downs but each event has caused us to grow, not only in our own ways, but also together. We have had a lot of fun together and I hope with all my heart that we can have many more enjoyable times together.

Ron, I want to thank you for all your understanding patience, and willingness to try to make our relationship grow. I want to also thank you for making me realize the Truth about different, little but important things.

I also promise to try to set with my knees together, wear red and to make you happy in any way possible!!

I personally want to wish you the best of luck for all your future plans and I hope you really get down & work to develop all your talents.

Ronnie, I really can't think of all I should say but maybe you think of a date. (maybe) that can express it.

Well any way may God bless you in all you do forever & ever!

Here's hoping for a fab year as senior's!

Keep Smiling.

With all my Love,

(Becky)

Keek.

Ronnie Barnes
It's been fun knowin' ya for it hasn't been very long. You've got a cool head & don't ever forget painting the floats & musical revue & others — always keep cool & try (if you can) to keep it clean! Love ya — Marilyn '67

"LIONS' PRIDE"

Meadowdale High School

Dayton, Ohio

1966

Foreword

This book was not an easy task, but it did afford us an insight into life and people not often available to those as young as we. Along with this experience, we learned to work side-by-side, toward a common goal; your 1966 Yearbook.

In trying to give you the best book possible, certain changes in the previously traditional format were necessary. These changes may, or may not, please all of you; but everything changes with the years, and so we felt these revisions were necessary. We hope they compliment and enrich your book, for that was our goal.

As you read from cover to cover, a story shall be unfolded to you; a story of people, a story about YOU. But before the story opens, let me take this opportunity to thank all those who helped to make this book a success. And a special thanks to Julie Black, Joyce Borkenhagen, Deb Handler, Ray McKenzie, and Ricky Chamberlin, for that "Extra Effort!"

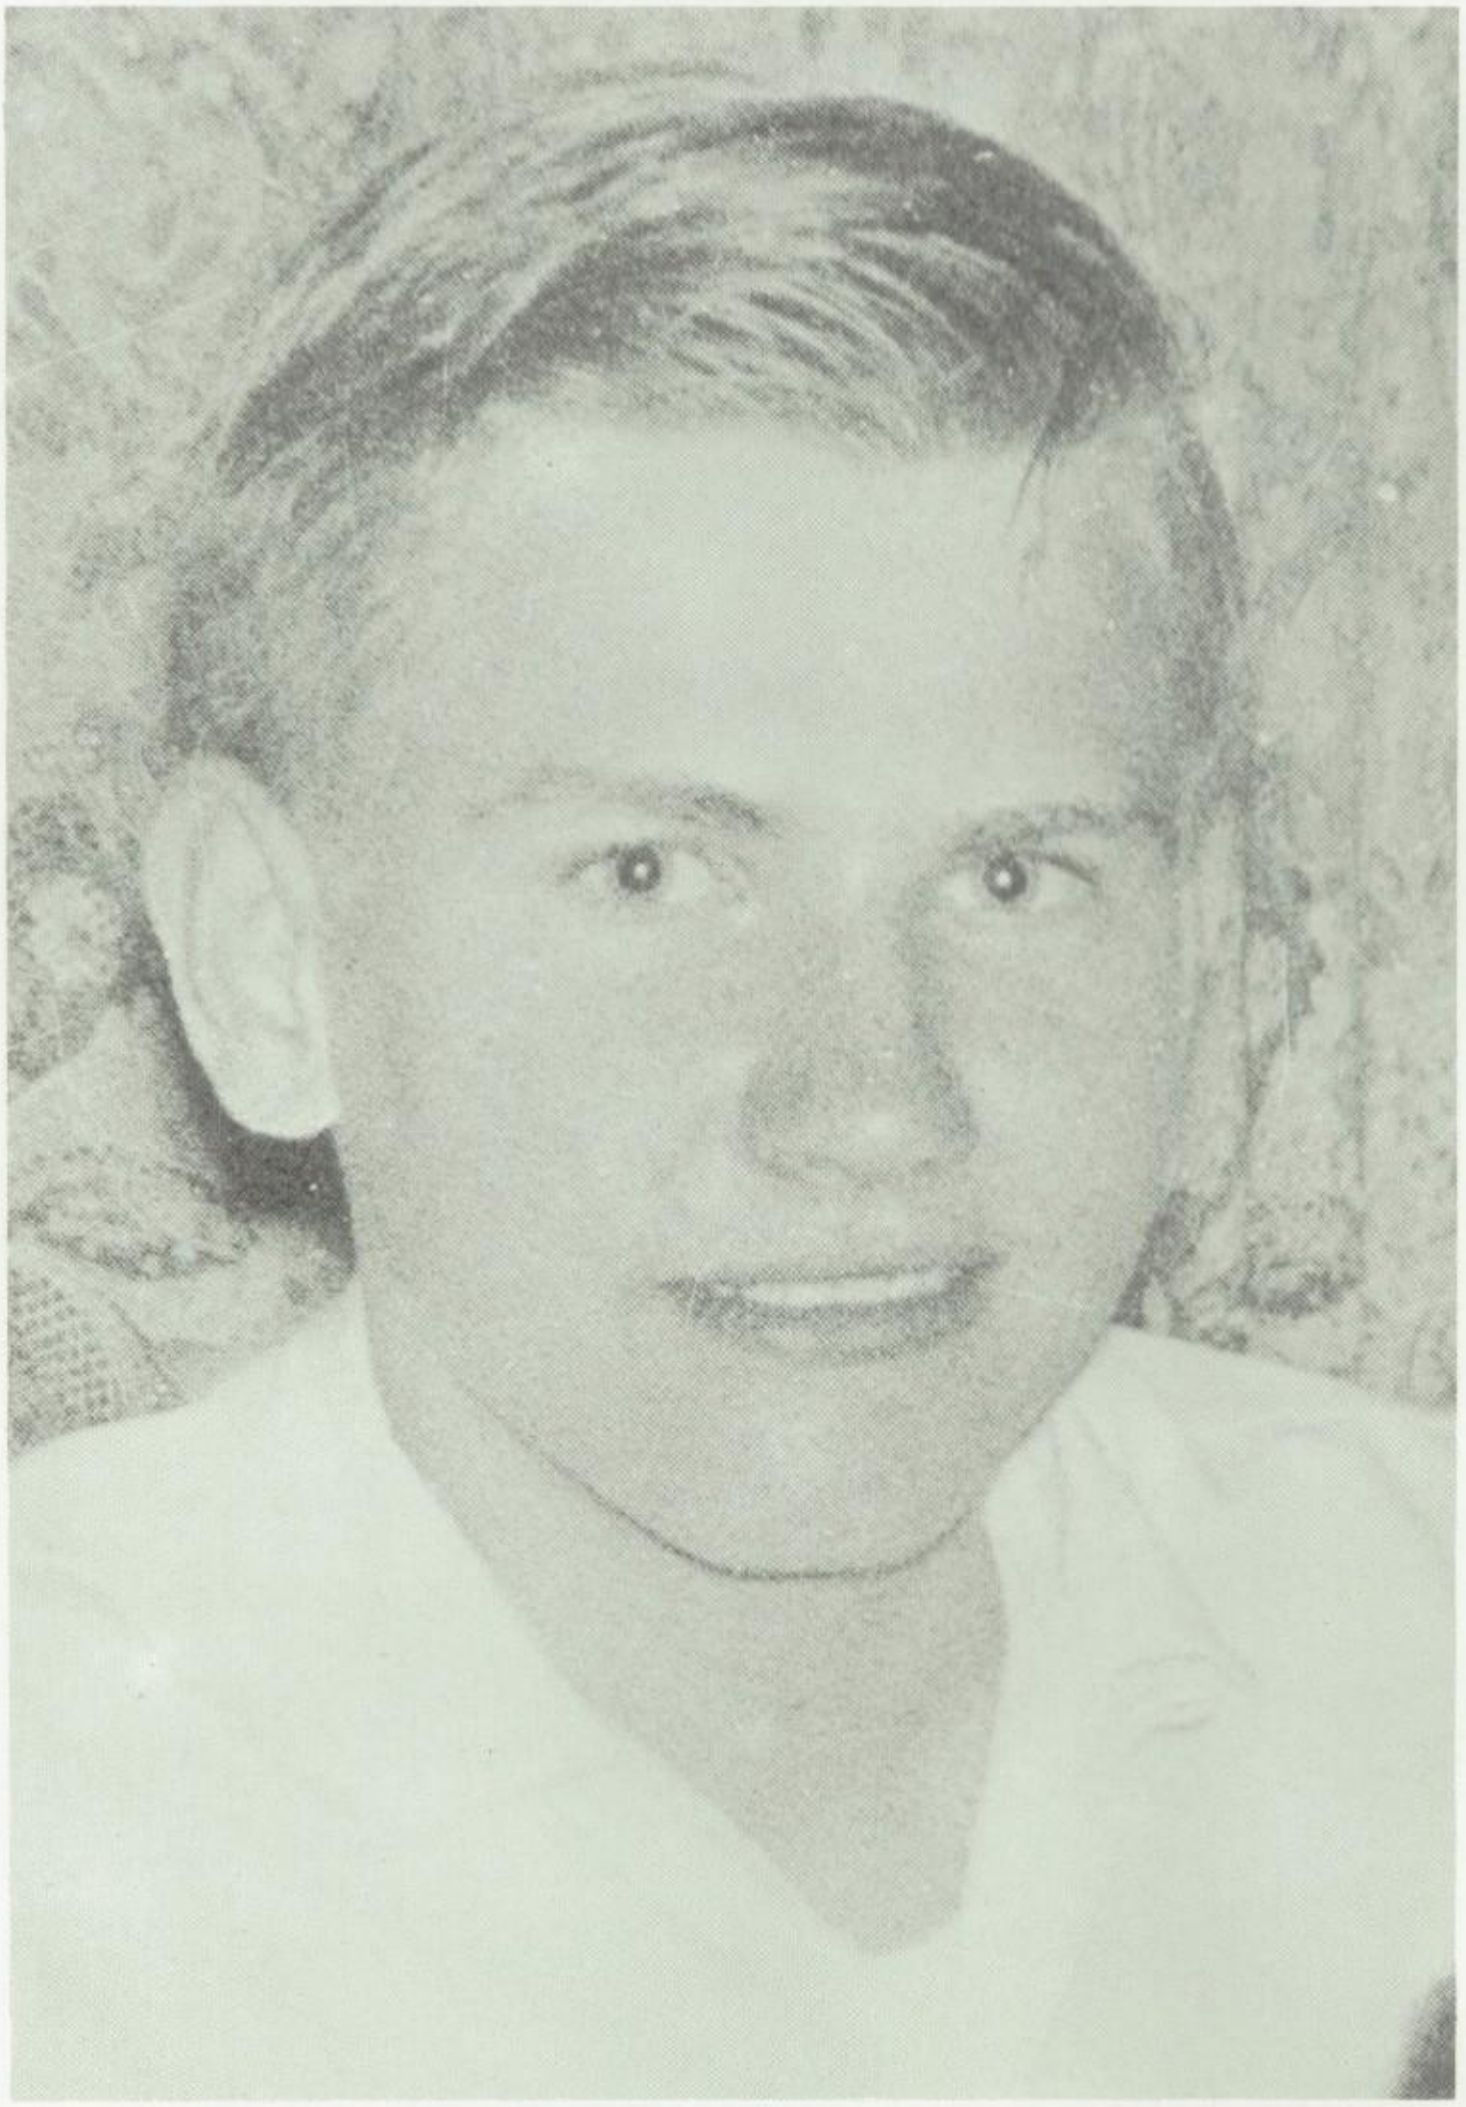
"In Memoriam"



Bart van der Hoeven

Dedication

"I sent thee late a rosy wreath,
Not so much honoring thee
As giving it a hope that there
It could not withered be;
But thou thereon didst only breathe,
And sent'st it back to me;
Since when it grows, and smells, I swear,
Not of itself but thee!"

Ben Jonson

The achievements of Bart van der Hoeven were many and few; great and not so great; but never small. Bart did his best no matter how minute and insignificant the task might have been. Maybe you will remember him from his many functions in Student Council, Latin Club, Discussion Circle, Inter-Club Council - the list is numerous. Others of you will remember just passing him in the halls - books in arm, tousled blond hair, and an inviting, broad smile.

But do you remember the petals of a rose? In time they too wither and die. But you remember the rose for its heavenly essence. Although it is taken away from you no one can remove its beautiful memory, or its value.

We the class of 1966 will always remember Bart because of the vibrant spirit that he gave to each and every person. This spirit is instilled in all of us. His spirit is the spirit of Meadowdale.

What more can be said? Words seem very inadequate - but, perhaps, silence best expresses love. And so we, the Class of '66, dedicate this Yearbook to the memory of Bart van der Hoeven.

Isidoro Yedlin, our foreign exchange student from Buenos Aires, Argentina, added much to the student body, as well as to the faculty of M.H.S. They not only met him, but found out some of the differences between the two ways of life. One big contrast is the formality of his people in comparison with the modern American "Teen."

Isidoro already completed Argentina's equivalent of high school and had one year at a University before coming here. His favorite subjects include history, logic, and literature. His favorite sports include tennis and softball.

Isidoro was a great asset, and participated in many of Meadowdale's activities. He had a lead in the Senior Class Play. We were sorry to see him go.

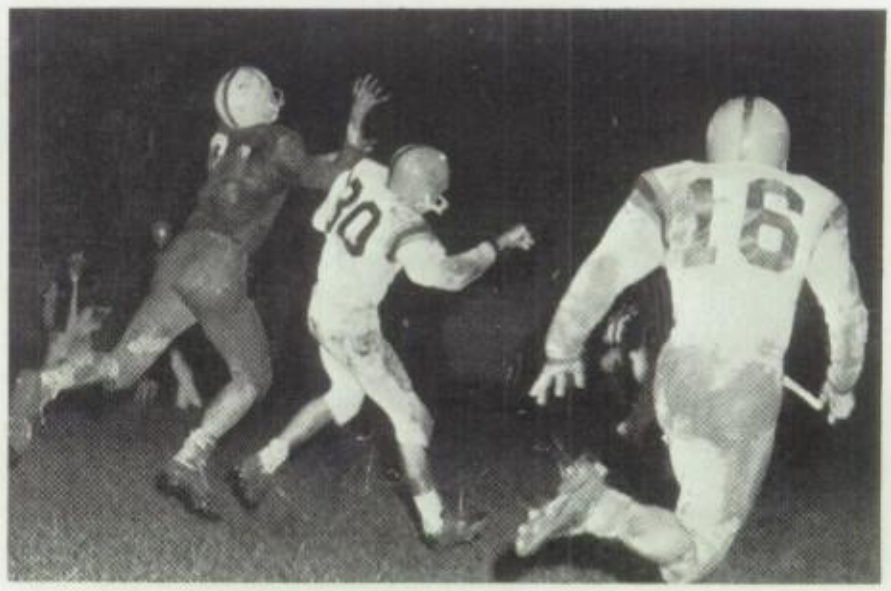
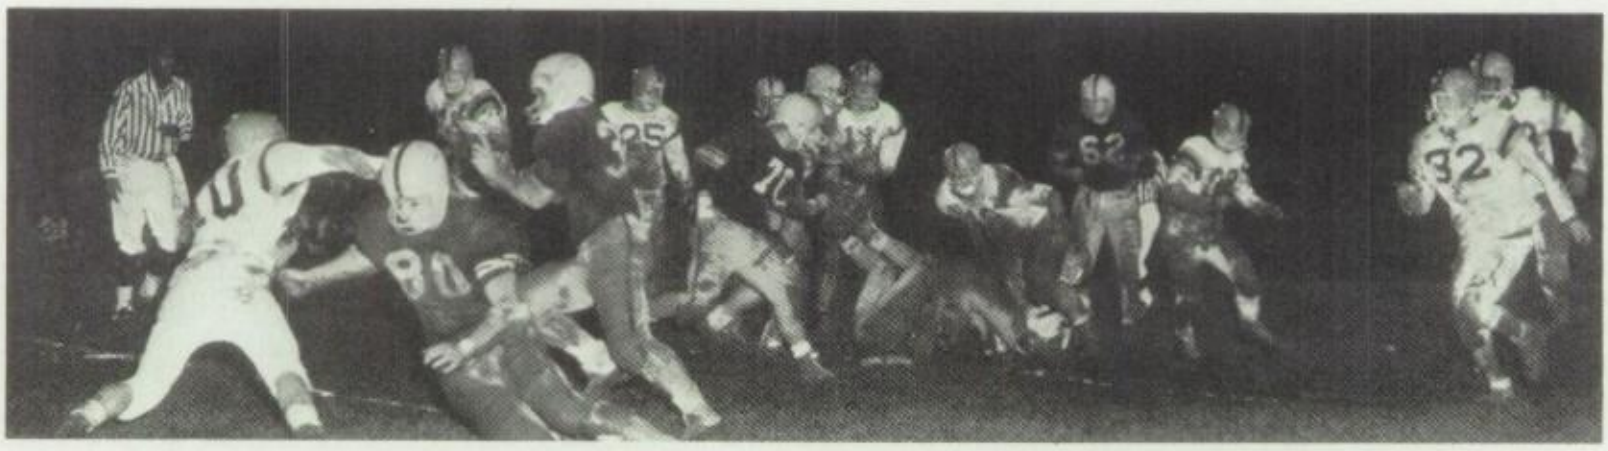
HOMECOMING



Our Homecoming game, played against Stivers, was won by M. H. S. This was a wonderful beginning for a wonderful memory.



At half time everyone waited expectantly for the Homecoming Court to be announced. Because Homecoming is a Dalions project, Sherri Sommers, President, had the honor of announcing it.

The Homecoming dance progressed to the music of the Dave Goode Orch.

The evening was enjoyed by all.

We see Jim and Pam, senior attendants, enjoying the dance.

Senior Class Play

For the past few years it has been the policy of Meadowdale to put on a light hearted drama. But this year's Senior Play, INCIDENT at CARSON'S CORNER, was a drama, with a great deal of depth to it.

The play centered around the death of a high school student and a mock trial held by the students. Who was the person, or persons, responsible for this death? The entire town, through negligence, was responsible; yet no one would take the blame. Each person did what we too often do; they passed the "buck" to some one else.

"The Family Know Body Wanted" is a story very much up to date. It shows prejudice and that their basic cause is ignorance.

Once Upon a Now

Somewhere, sometime, each of us is born into a talcumed world full of love and affection, Then to the rhyme TIME sets, we march along through days filled with tricycles, hopscotch, and the wonders of being children, But TIME knows little of the magic in childhood, and it snatches us up before we're ready and pushes us on our way toward growing up. In a kaleidoscope of seconds and minutes, our school days leave us learning and laughing, wondering and searching. Then, there we are, tossed by the confusion of adolescence into a world full of discovery, rebellion, awareness. Suddenly we need more than ourselves, and each finds his someone. TIME hasn't waited. Then the seconds go on ticking, and the hours come and go, until "then" becomes yesterday, and "now" is tomorrow, and "Once Upon a Now and Then" is what each of us is made of.

Class History

September 8, 1965. the beginning of our Senior year. It seemed like yesterday that the Class of '65 was preparing to bid their final adieu to M. H. S. And yet that same morning we, the Class of '66 knew that soon it would be our turn upon that verstage, feverishly trying to remember which hand to extend for that "paper" and which to extend to Mr. Maxwell. That was but a few short months ago. The time between then and now, blend with our other years here at Meadowdale, forming countless memories.

Our four years began with the confusion and excitement natural to Freshmen. Our officers that year were: Randy Solomon, President; Mark Gagyi, Vice-President; Sally Setty, Secretary; Peggy Thomas, Treasurer, Charlotte Garthwait, Historian; Ron Schultze, Sgt-at-Arms. These officers, maintaining these positions through our Sophomore years, helped to create the title "CLASS of '66." Our money making projects that year were selling the Lion's Listions, and putting on a dance.

Then all of the sudden we were "Upper Classmen." Our Junior Year started with the election of our officers. They were: Dwight Brannon, President, Randy Solomon, Vice President; Pam Bryant, Secretary; Charlotte Garthwait, Treasurer; Barb Baker, Historian; Jim Sherman, Sergeant-at-Arms. Team work was found in the students who helped with the outstanding events of that year. The comedy, "The Family Knowbody Wanted", and the Junior Skit were huge successes. The most outstanding moment of that year was the Junior-Senior Prom, "Gay Paree".

Then came that big year and we were on the top; Seniors, the Class of '66. Our officers were; Bob McCandlish, President; Mike Flaugher, Vice-President; Carla Philipps, Secretary; Bob Carney, Treasurer; Nancy Smalley, Historian; Phil West, Sgt-at-Arms. "Mums and Memories", our Homecoming Dance, was one we shall remember. The stimulating Senior Play, "The Remarkable Incident at Carsons Corner", shall be remembered for a long time. And who will ever forget that the Class of '66 was the first senior class to go over the 100% mark during the Booster Bar Campaign.

These events will be important memories to us. Each memory is but a small particle, and very small indeed. But together they make up the sum total of our four years at Meadowdale. They are part of our life; part of our character. Now we must look ahead to new horizons in space travel; in education; and most of all, in personal achievement.

"Hi, just

Yes, there were many wonderful moments that shall soon be but memories; memories we shall save and cherish.

Last Words

Now, for us, another year has passed; another Senior Class has left its echoed memory still ringing through these hallowed halls. Those who entered timidly and frightened four years ago, now stride manfully, purposely, ever onward to conquer the unknown. How often we thought that those periods would never end; but they did. We watched those moments, so precious to us now, slip by in almost a whisper.

Our four years at Meadowdale was a part of our preparation for whatever is yet to come. We feel it has been a worthy part. We are glad to leave, but we look back with fond regrets. Each of us stops for a moment to capture a forgotten smile or a sacred memory. For us, the Class of '66, this is our last look back; we must now look ahead, to the future.

"The hopes that have been set for us are no higher than those we set for ourselves. We did not expect to come into a perfect world; we do not expect to leave one. But we do hope in passing through; we may add our small contribution to the great store house, our bit of effort to the great endeavor."

You've helped me so much in so many ways. I suppose few people know you as you really are. It's so wonderful to know a person who can be understanding, helpful, thoughtful and considerate at all times. You've shown me how to be happy and that's very important to me. Thank you for thinking I can sing! As Charlie says "I about flipped my pizza" when you told me about the Lemon Tree! That was so sweet of you. We've done some crazy things together (the rings!!) At the Home Show - my husband and in the class play - my father (Would you believe my cousin, uncle or brother?) All in all you're pretty great. One night you said something very nice to me, now I'll say it to you "Thanks for being wonderful."

Love,
Bobbie

Rod, I read the good book and I'm glad I met you.
To a darling guy
Remember Lucille Ball
Thanks for being a friend.
